The company shall indemnify any person who is or was a member of the board of management and any person who is a former supervisory director and who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the company) by reason of the fact that he is or was member of the board of management, a supervisory director, officer, employee or agent of the company, or is or was serving at the request of the company as member of the board of management, a supervisory director, officer, director, employee, trustee or agent of another company, a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise or entity, including with respect to employee benefit plans maintained or sponsored by the company or for the benefit of its or any of its group companies' employees or consultants against all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgements, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful or outside of his mandate.
- The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by a judgement, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and not in a manner which he reasonably could believe to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.
- 15.2. The company shall indemnify any person who is or was a member of the board of management, and any person who is a former supervisory director, and who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding by or in the right of the company to procure a judgement in its favour, by reason of the fact that he is or was member of the board of management, a supervisory director, officer, employee or agent of the company, or is or was serving at the request of the company as a member of the board of management, a supervisory director, officer, director, employee, trustee or agent of another company, a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise or entity, including with respect to employee benefit plans maintained or sponsored by the company or for the benefit of its or any of its group companies' employees or consultants against all expenses (including attorneys' fees) judgements, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the company, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for gross negligence or wilful misconduct in the performance of his duty to the company, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or proceeding was brought or any other court having appropriate jurisdiction shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all of the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification against such expenses which the court in which such action or proceeding was brought or such other court having appropriate jurisdiction shall deem proper.

- 15.3. To the extent that a member of the board of management, a former supervisory director, officer, employee or agent of the company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defence of any action, suits or proceeding, referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2, or in defence of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against all expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.
- 15.4. Any indemnification by the company referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall (unless ordered by a court) only be made by the company upon a determination that indemnification of the member of the board of management or former supervisory director is proper under the circumstances because he had met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article 15. Such determination shall be made:
- a. by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or
 - b. by the general meeting of shareholders.
- 15.5. Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a member of the board of management or a former supervisory director in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the company in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the member of the board of management or the former supervisory director to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the company as authorized in this article. Such expenses incurred by officers, employees or agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions as the general meeting decides.
- 15.6. The indemnification provided for by this article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other right to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the laws of the Netherlands as from time to time amended or under any by-laws, agreement, resolution of the general meeting of shareholders or otherwise, both as to actions in his official capacity and as to actions in another capacity while holding such position, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a member of the board of management, supervisory director, officer, director, employee, trustee or agent and shall also inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators and the estate of such a person.

The company may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the general meeting, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any officer, employee or agent of the company to the fullest extent of the provisions of this article 15 with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of members of the board of management and former supervisory directors of the company.

- 15.7. The company may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the general meeting, purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a member of the board of management, a former supervisory director, officer, employee or agent of the company, or is or was serving at the request of the company as a member of the board of management, a former supervisory director, officer, director, employee, trustee or agent of another company, a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or entity, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his capacity as such, whether or not the company would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this article.
- 15.8. Whenever in this article reference is made to the company, this shall include, in addition to the resulting or surviving company also any constituent company (including any constituent company of a constituent company) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had the power to indemnify its members of the board of management, former supervisory directors, officers, employees and agents, so that any person who is or was a member of the board of management, supervisory director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent company, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent company as a member of the board of management, a former supervisory director, officer, director, employee, trustee or agent of another company, a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise or entity, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this article with respect to the resulting or surviving company as he would have with respect to such constituent company if its separate existence had continued.
- 15.9. No person shall be personally liable to the company or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a member of the board of management or a former supervisory director; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a member of the board of management or a former supervisory director (1) for any breach of such individual's duty of loyalty to the company or its shareholders, (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit or (4) for personal liability which is imposed by Dutch law, as from time to time amended.
- No amendment, repeal or modification of this article 15 shall adversely affect any right or protection of any person entitled to indemnification or advancement of expenses under this article 15 prior to such amendment, repeal or modification.

- 16.5. Shareholders and other holders of meeting rights shall be given notice of the shareholders meeting by the board of management or by a managing director. The notice shall specify the items to be discussed.
Shareholders representing one per cent (1%) of the issued capital may request the board of management to add proposals to the agenda of a shareholders meeting, provided such a request shall have been submitted to the board of management at the office of the company at least fifty days prior to the day when a shareholders meeting shall be held.
- 16.6. Notice shall be given not later than on the fifteenth day prior to the date of the meeting.
If the notice period was shorter or if no notice was sent, no valid resolutions may be adopted unless the resolution is adopted by unanimous vote at a meeting at which the entire issued share capital is represented.
The provision of the preceding sentence shall equally apply to matters which have not been mentioned in the notice of the meeting or in a supplementary notice sent with due observance of the notice period.
- 16.7. The general meeting shall appoint its chairman. The chairman shall designate the secretary.

Holders of a right of usufruct on shares without voting rights and holders of a right of pledge on shares without voting rights shall not be entitled to the rights conferred by law on the holders of depositary receipts issued for shares with the company's cooperation.

Managing directors as such have an advisory vote in a shareholders meeting. Blank and/or invalid votes are considered as not being cast.

- 17.2. Shareholders and other holders of meeting rights may be represented at a meeting by a proxy authorised in writing.
- 17.3. All resolutions shall be adopted by an absolute majority of the votes cast unless the law or these articles of association requires a larger majority.

Each shareholder is, either in person or by a proxy authorised in writing, entitled to participate in a shareholders meeting, to address the meeting and to exercise his voting rights by electronic means of communication. To do so he must be able to participate in the deliberations through the electronic means of communication. The board of management may with the consent of the general meeting attach conditions to the use of the electronic means of communication. The notice of the meeting shall set out these conditions or state where they can be consulted.
- 17.5. For the purposes of paragraphs 2 and 4 of this article, the requirement of written form shall also be met if the proxy has been recorded electronically.
- 17.6. Shareholders, holders of a right of usufruct on shares with voting rights and holders of a right of pledge on shares with voting rights may adopt any resolutions which they could adopt at a meeting, without holding a meeting. The managing directors are given the opportunity to advise regarding such resolution, unless in the circumstances it is unacceptable according to criteria of reasonableness and fairness to give such opportunity. A resolution to be adopted without holding a meeting shall only be valid if all shareholders entitled to vote and all other persons entitled to vote have cast their votes in writing or by legible and reproducible electronic communications in favour of the proposal concerned. The shareholders shall forthwith notify the board of management of the resolution so adopted.

If the law does not require that the instructions mentioned in the preceding sentence be given, the company may also instruct another expert to audit the annual accounts prepared by the board of management; such expert shall hereinafter also be referred to as auditor.

The general meeting shall be authorised to give the instructions referred to above. If the general meeting fails to give the instructions, the board of management shall be authorised to do so.

- 22.1. If the company is dissolved pursuant to a resolution of the general meeting, it shall be liquidated by the board of management if and to the extent that the general meeting does not resolve otherwise.

- 23.1. In deviation from article 3, paragraphs 2 and 3, article 10 and article 17 or, where applicable, in addition to those provisions, the provisions of this article 23 apply until the moment on which the board of management deposits a statement with the Trade Register of the Chamber of Commerce confirming that no shares in the share capital of the company are held in Necigef's giro securities transfer system any longer. In addition to the previous sentence it shall not be possible to adopt a resolution without holding a meeting, as meant in article 17, paragraph 6 as long as article 23 is applicable. - Share certificates shall be numbered in the manner as determined by the board of management and signed by one managing director.
- 23.6. In the event of loss, theft, destruction or damage of share certificates the board of management may issue duplicates. The board of management may determine conditions for (issue of) duplicates, including the granting of guarantees and the compensation of costs by the applicant. It should be evident from the new document that it is a duplicate. If a duplicate is issued, the original document shall become worthless towards the company.
- 23.7. All bearer shares will be combined in one global share certificate.
- 23.8. The control of the global share certificate referred to in paragraph 7 of this article will be irrevocably entrusted to Necigef and Necigef will be irrevocably authorized to perform everything necessary on behalf of the party/parties entitled in respect of the shares concerned, including the acceptance, delivery and co-operation to registration on and deletion from the share certificate.

- 23.10. In extraordinary circumstances the board of management may, subject to approval of Necigef, decide that bearer shares may be combined in a different manner than in a global share certificate as referred in paragraph 7 of this article.
